v.

U S A A GENERAL INDEMNITY CO, et al.

DIANA J ELSTON

MINUTE ENTRY

On July 9, 2015, Defendant USAA filed a Motion to Dismiss. Defendant has not filed a Response.

Failure to respond may be deemed consent to granting of the Motion, and the Court may dispose of the Motion summarily. Rule 7.1(b), Ariz. R. Civ. P.

Moreover, the insurance policy at issue, which is a contract between the parties, includes an appraisal clause requiring the parties to submit this dispute to appraisers. The policy also includes a separate legal action clause stating that no legal action may be brought until there has been full compliance with the policy.

For the foregoing reasons,

IT IS ORDERED granting the Motion to Dismiss. Defendant is directed to submit a proposed form of order within thirty (30) days of this order.
