v.

COUNTRY CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY

JODY L BUZICKY

MINUTE ENTRY

The Court received and considered Plaintiff's Motion To Enforce Court Order Requiring Appraisal and Motion For Leave to File Complaint, and Defendant's responsive pleading.

Defendant responded by concurring with Plaintiff that the matter shall proceed to appraisal as requested by Plaintiff. As a consequence, this portion of Plaintiff's motion is now moot. The Court will take no action on this portion of Plaintiff's motion.

The Court will retain jurisdiction in this matter and place the matter on the inactive calendar for a period of time to allow the appraisal process to be completed.

IT IS ORDERED placing this matter on the inactive calendar for a period of 6 months or through August 11, 2005.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED denying Plaintiff's request to file a complaint without prejudice to the re-urging of this request after the appraisal process has been completed.
