v.

PROGRESSIVE PALOVERDE INSURANCE CO HAROLD H SWENSON

MINUTE ENTRY

The court has considered the motion to compel appraisal, the response and reply.

The plaintiffs accepted the settlement offer in this matter. They now claim that the offer was insufficient and that the appraised value was unreasonable. Under these circumstances, the court determines that the appraisal provision of the insurance contract should be implemented, and that the litigation should be briefly stayed so that the appraisal process can be completed.

IT IS ORDERED:

- (1) The parties shall implement the appraisal provision of the policy;
- (2) The appraisal process shall be completed by Friday, April 11, 2003;
- (3) The litigation is stayed until Monday, April 14, 2003.
