Discovery shall be completed within four weeks prior to trial.

If referral to the Office of Alternative Dispute Resolution is desired, counsel shall give this Court six weeks notice.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. All motions in limine shall be filed no later than three weeks prior to trial and hand delivered to all counsel of record on the date filed. Responses to motions in limine shall be filed no later than two weeks prior to trial. The Court does not require replies to any motions in limine. The motions in limine shall be limited to motions that are designed to prevent a mistrial or a waste of time, and shall not be a preview of every evidentiary ruling that the Court might need to make.

2. Oral argument on motions in limine and final pretrial conference is set on April 12, 2004 at 1:30 p.m. for one hour. If there are no disputes on admissibility of exhibits or motions in limine, and the joint pretrial has been filed, then upon stipulation of the parties, the Court can vacate this hearing.

3. Telephonic status conference is set for February 2, 2004 at 8:30 a.m. in this division. The Court will initiate the call. Counsel are to provide current telephone numbers to the Court. If trial preparation is moving forward as expected and counsel do not desire to talk with the Court, this telephonic status conference may be vacated.

9:50 a.m. Hearing concludes.
